

I understand that the Consumer Bankers Association has propoposed weakening Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law to allow unlimited calls from those buisnesses with which consumers have an established buisness relationship. I am very much opposed to this change. My family and I treasure our quiet time together each evening. I would hate to see that time again regularly interrupted by soliciations for credit card insurance and digital calbe service, etc. Thank you for hearing my concern.